

In December

By:
Christine Silvia
& Stefne Jean

On the night of the holiday
Songs filled the house
A sweet melody
From Kiko the mouse

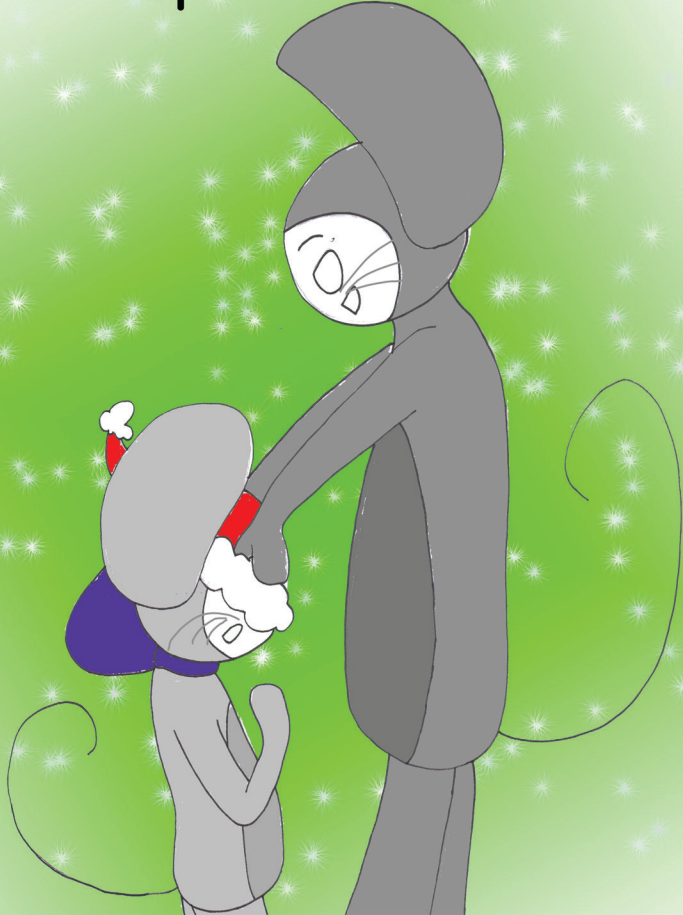

So they headed back inside
And Kiko will always remember
The best Mouse Day ever
That year in December

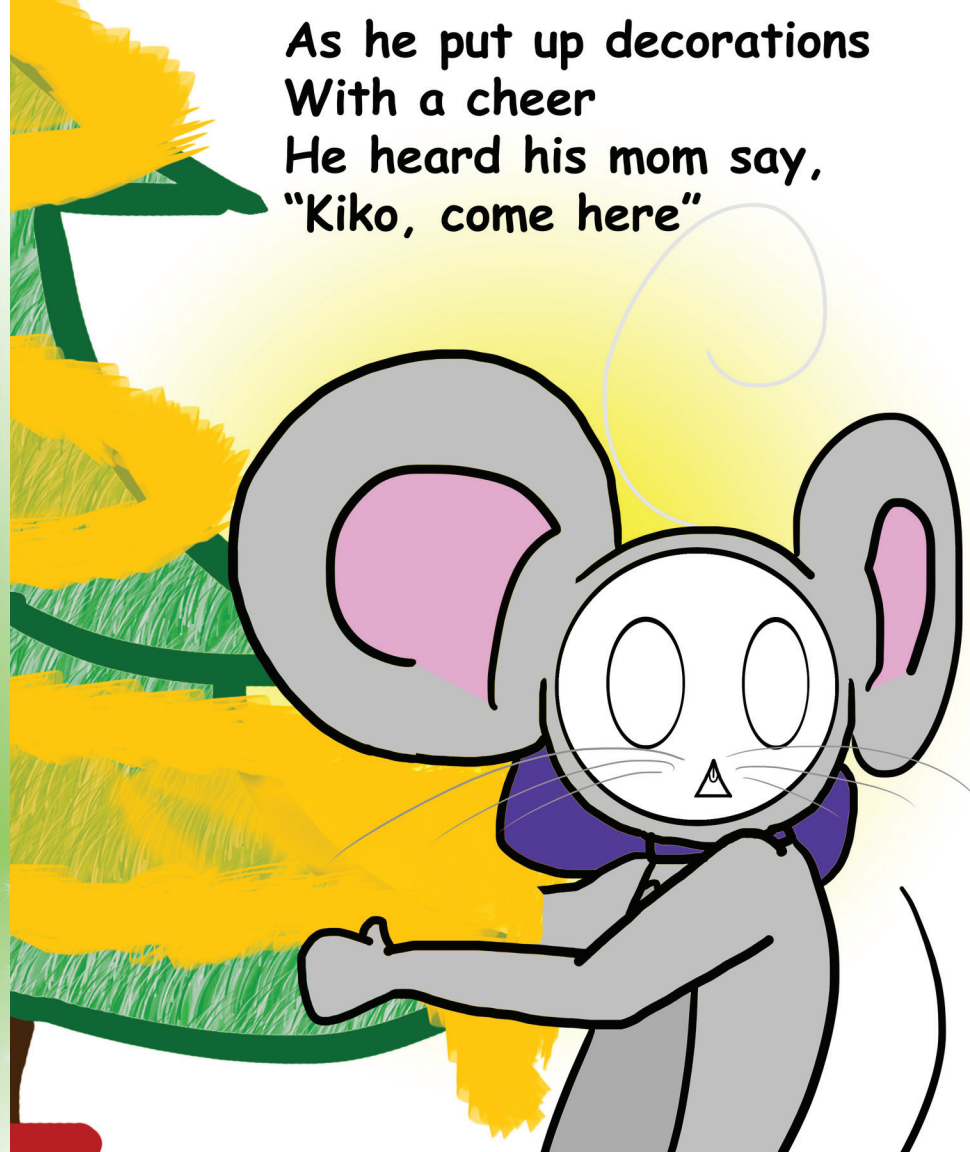

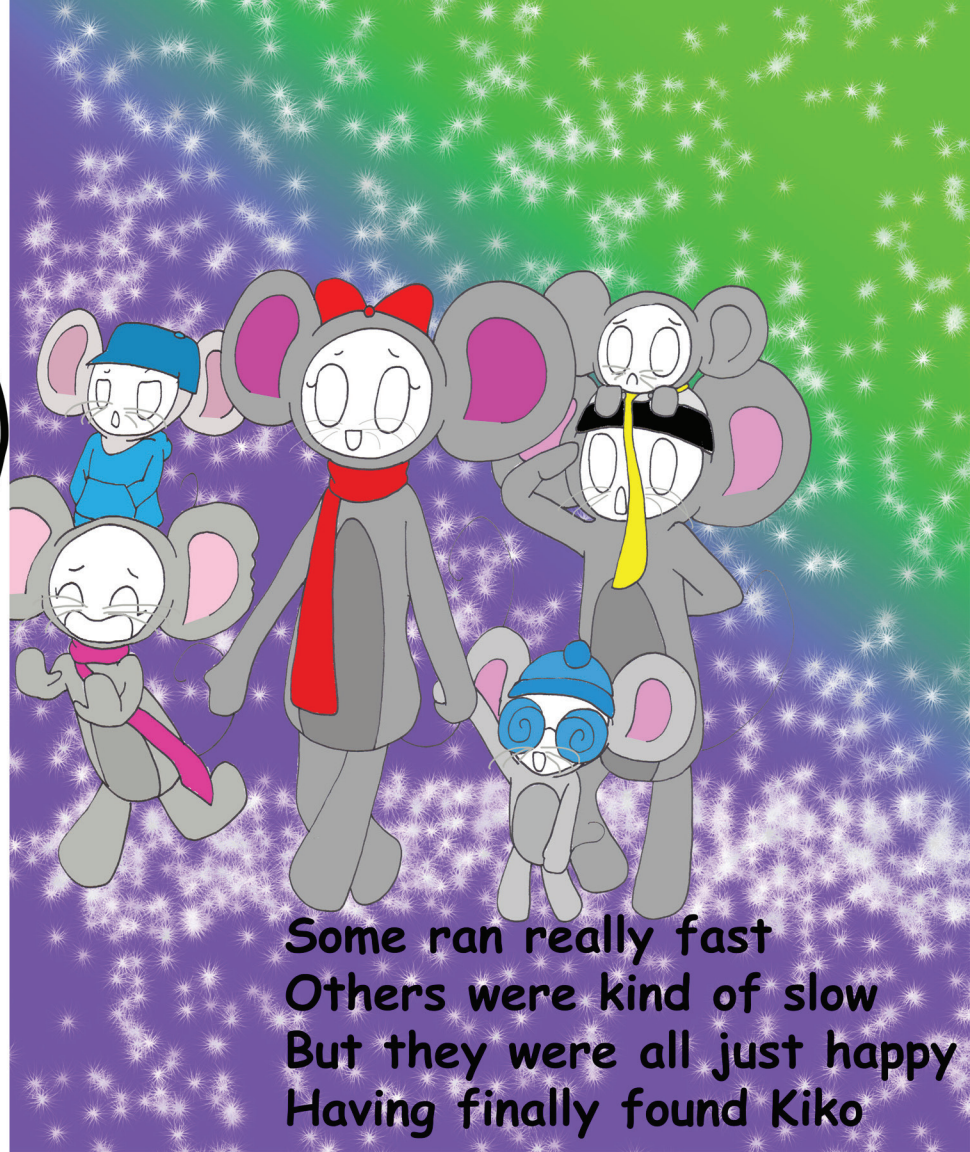

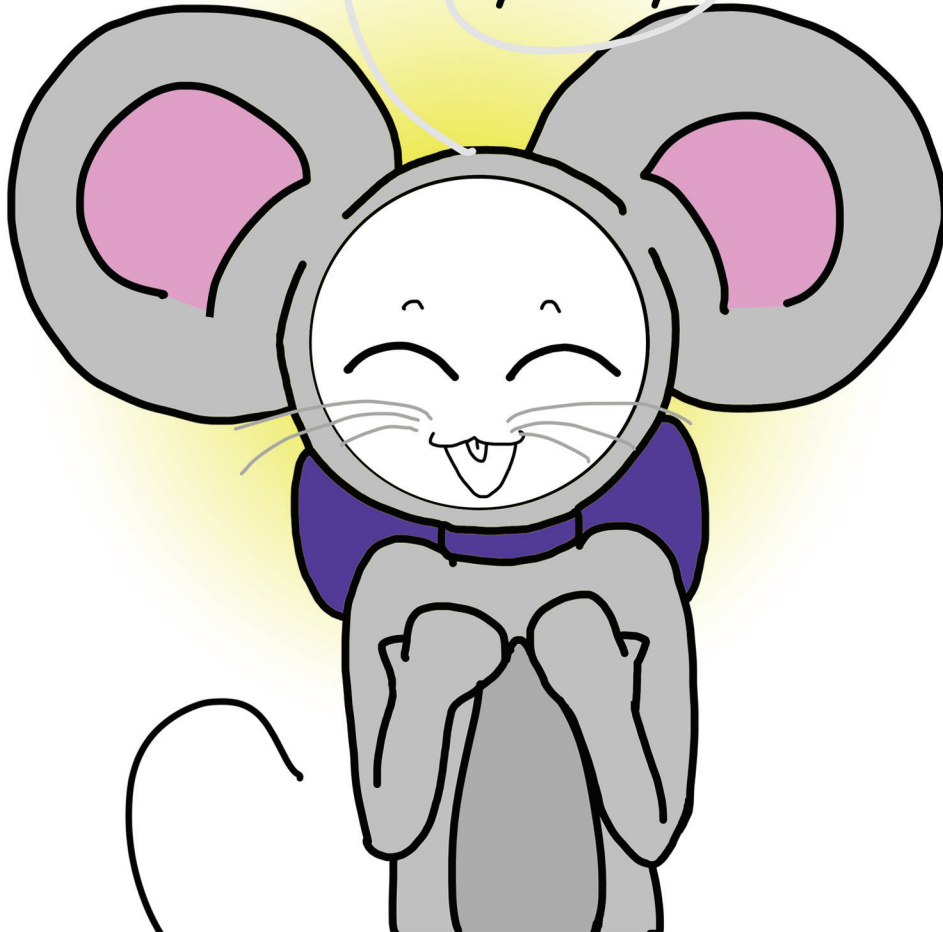

"You silly mouse
You thought I wouldn't see?
You're my lil bro!
You're important to me!"

As he put up decorations
With a cheer
He heard his mom say,
"Kiko, come here"

His face lit up
With a smile from ear to ear
He said, "Mommy, what I want
For Mouse Day this year—"

Some ran really fast
Others were kind of slow
But they were all just happy
Having finally found Kiko

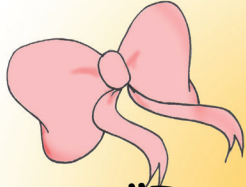

His name being shouted
In the middle of the night
His brothers and sisters
Crying with all their might

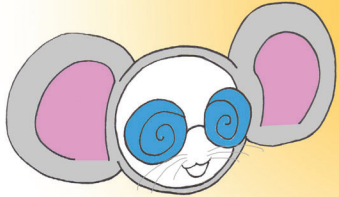

But all of a sudden
The room became a blur
It filled to the top
With his brothers and sisters

"I want a racecar!"

"I want a ribbon!"

"I want a book!"

"I want a chicken!"

A loud sound came
That made Kiko's head turn
He wiped at his eyes
And suddenly heard...

Kiko was lost
Cold and alone
He didn't want to run away anymore
He just wanted to go home

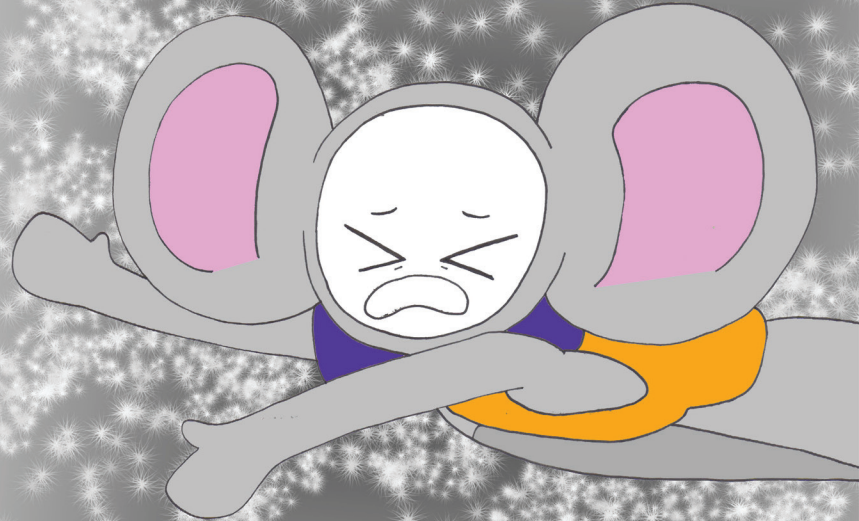

"What about what I want?"
Kiko said with a pout
But no one could hear him
Even though he did shout

"No one cares
About lil 'ol me
I'm just 1
out of 23"

Just as he was wishing
He had brought along a hat
his feet slipped from under him
And he fell down with a SPLAT!

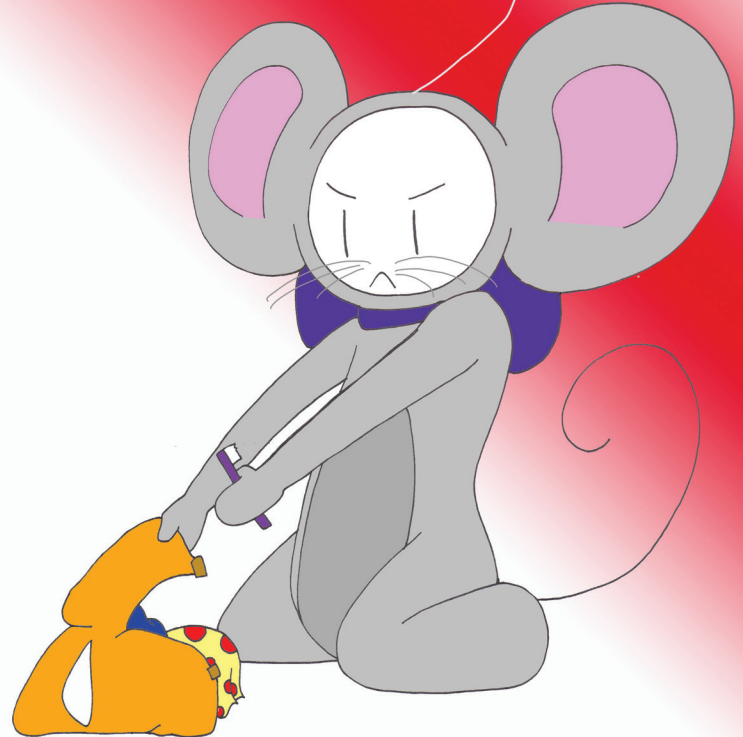

Kiko traveled
In the freezing snow
Where he was going
He didn't even know

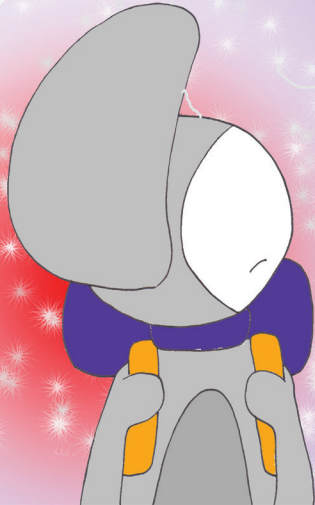

So Kiko packed his things
And came to say
"I'll show them
I'll just run away"

But even as Kiko
Walked out of the house
No one seemed to notice
They were down by 1 mouse

His eyes filled up
Until he couldn't see
He ran and cried
"No one needs me!"

