

Bassil Abuhuzeima

Mr. Handyman - Game Design Document

Title of the Game:

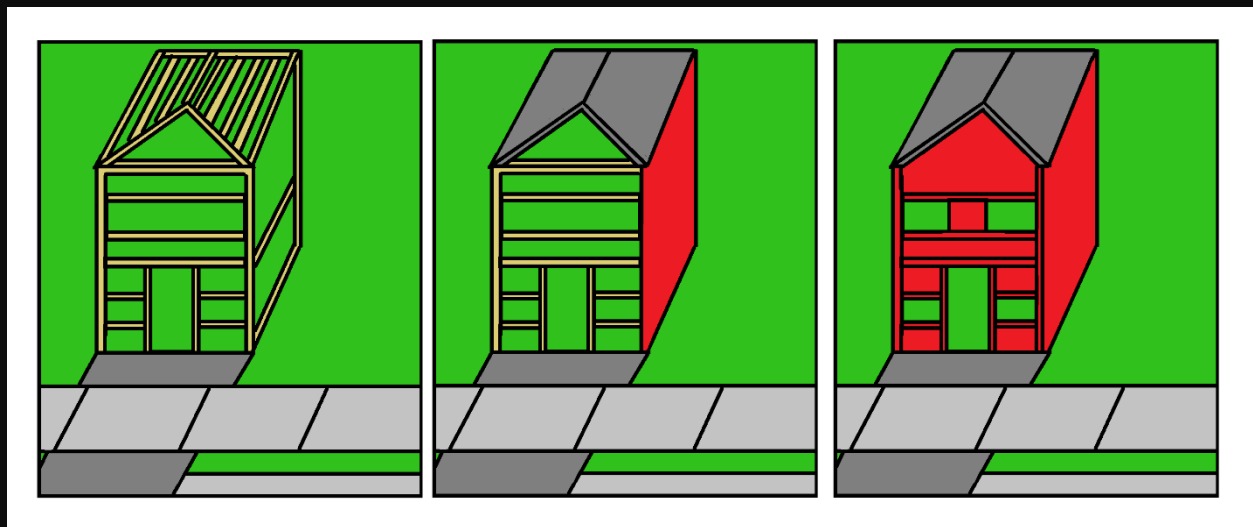

- This is the title card of my Game. The game is called Mr. Handyman.

Mr. Handyman the Game includes:

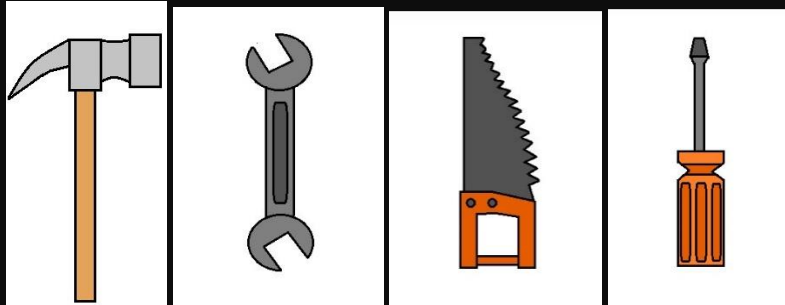

- Starting Area
- Main Menu
- Building Houses
- Tools

House Being Built:

- This shows what the house will look like when it is being built in the game.

Tools:

- These are the tools that will be used in the game.
- These tools are Hammer, Wrench, Saw, and Screwdriver.

Game Details:

- 2D Building Game
- 2 Playable Characters

Character #1: Mr. Handyman:

- Mr. Handyman serves as the protagonist of the game.

Character #2: Mr. Engineer:

- Mr. Engineer serves as Mr. Handyman's partner.

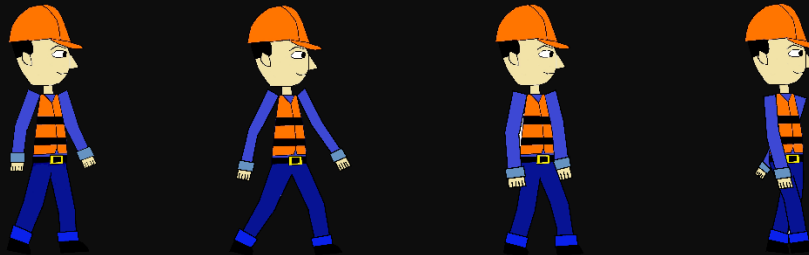

The plot of the Game:

- Mr. Handyman is a construction worker who loves to build houses. He is given a task to build houses in an empty Suburban area. The task for this job is for two people because It would take Mr. Handyman a long time to finish building houses on his own. He needed to work with a partner so that they would get the job done faster. He gets a partner and is named Mr. Engineer and they work together to build houses.

Controls:

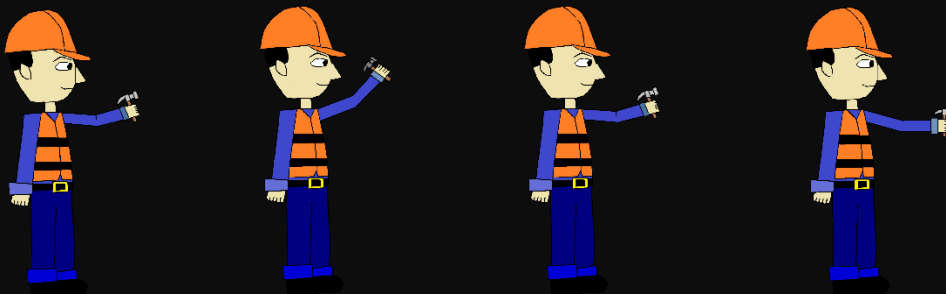

- A-D - Waking back and forth

Mr. Engineer Walking Sprite:

- This is a sprite of Mr. Engineer walking.

Mr. Engineer Hammering Sprite:

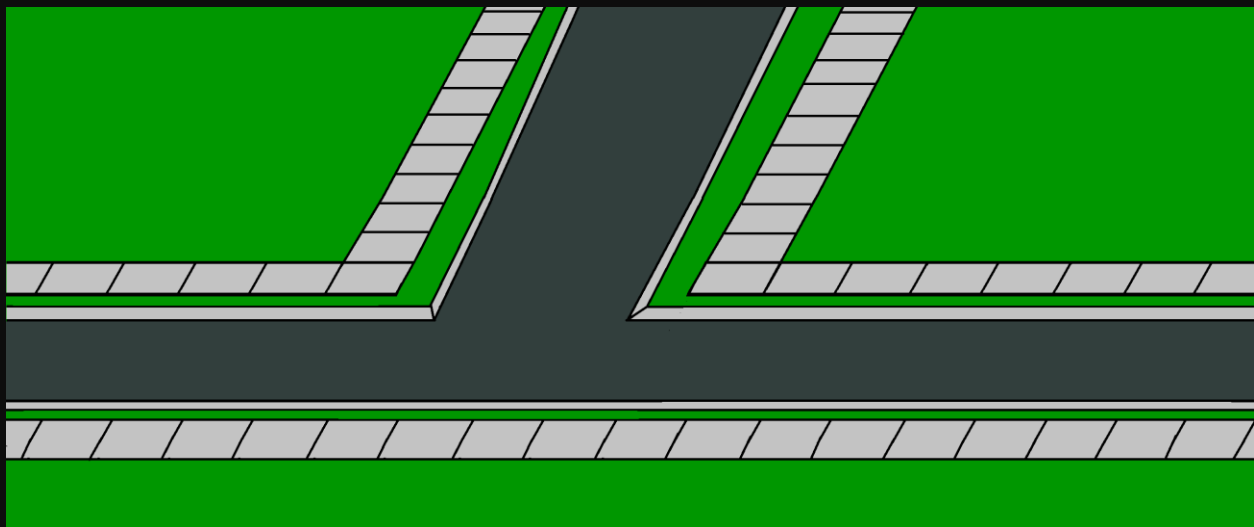

- This is a sprite of Mr. Engineer hammering with a hammer.

Main Menu:

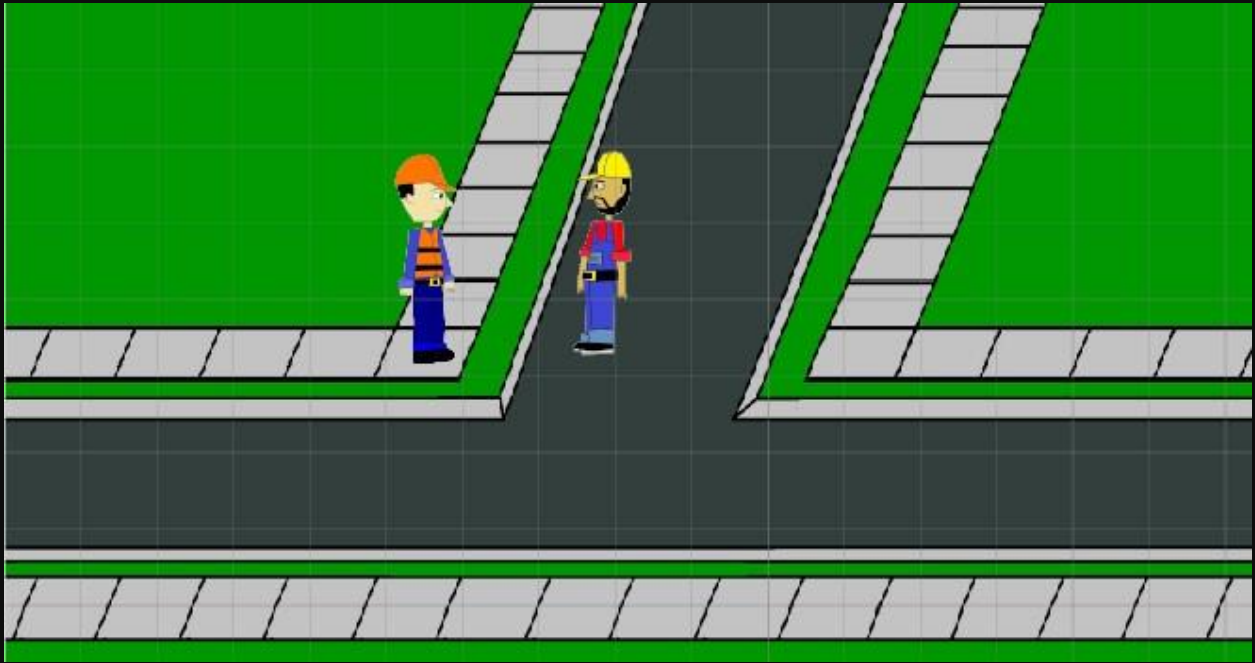

- The main menu for Mr. Handyman the game. The main menu includes a start game button where you can press start and start playing the game. The main menu includes a quit button where you can press quit if you want to quit the game. The main menu also features a background showing the starting area of the game.

Starting Area:

- The starting area of my game focuses on an empty suburban area where Mr. Handyman and Mr. Engineer both work together to build houses. The starting area depicts a T - shaped intersection.

In-Game:

- This features two characters Mr. Handyman and Mr. Engineer in the game ready to built houses.