Inspiration

Live is in development as a spiritual successor to Rockstar Games 2003 and 2007 games Manhunt. While mechanics may be similar, I want to bring Manhunt into the 21st century and give it a twist.

Synopsis

Live is first person, stealth horror, psychological thriller game. You play as Carl Landon. An investigative journalist researching the underground mobile app called Live. Carl receives an anonymous envelope with a body cam, ear piece, and cellphone inside. On the cellphone is a message stating that he is invited to join Live as player. He reluctantly proceeds to agree to the terms and conditions as the phone rings. He puts in the ear piece and the main antagonist, known now as Mr. Edward Rotica. He instructs you that you are now part of the game and that if you want to survive the to see the next day you will do exactly as he says. Carl will have to sneak around and brutally murder various different gangs in order to bring in more viewers and donations. He is promised that if he survives the night, he will be rewarded with money, and the story that will make his career. Carl nervously agrees and begins to play.

Environment

Live takes place on New Years Day in Industry City. Industry City is a fictional city based on the worst areas in Camden, Detroit, and Newark. There is barely any law enforcement, and the ones that do exist are just as corrupt as the politicians that govern the city. Criminals of all kinds have found refuge and safe haven here. Industry city has been split up into 8 divisions, with each division controlled by a different gang. It is just as terrifying here during the day, as it is at night. No one is safe, but the rent is low and the pizza is to die for!

Ad

iRinse

A digital artwork featuring a person in a red jacket, heavily distorted with digital glitch effects. The image is characterized by wavy, horizontal lines and color shifts, particularly in the upper half. A white, pixelated 'PLAY' button is visible in the top left corner. The person's face is partially obscured by the glitching, and they appear to be holding a microphone or a similar object. The overall aesthetic is reminiscent of early digital art or glitch art.
